What can you do when the snow falls outside, and covers everything far and wide?

Put on your snow boots and step outside as your dog follows you, stride for stride.

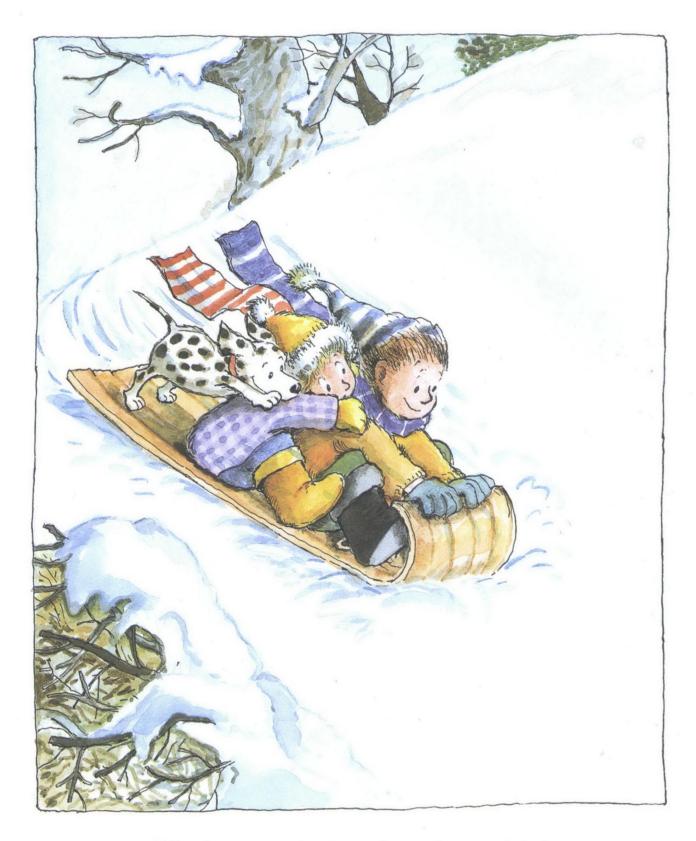

Make a huge snowball and toss it with pride.

Build a cool snow fort where your dog can hide.

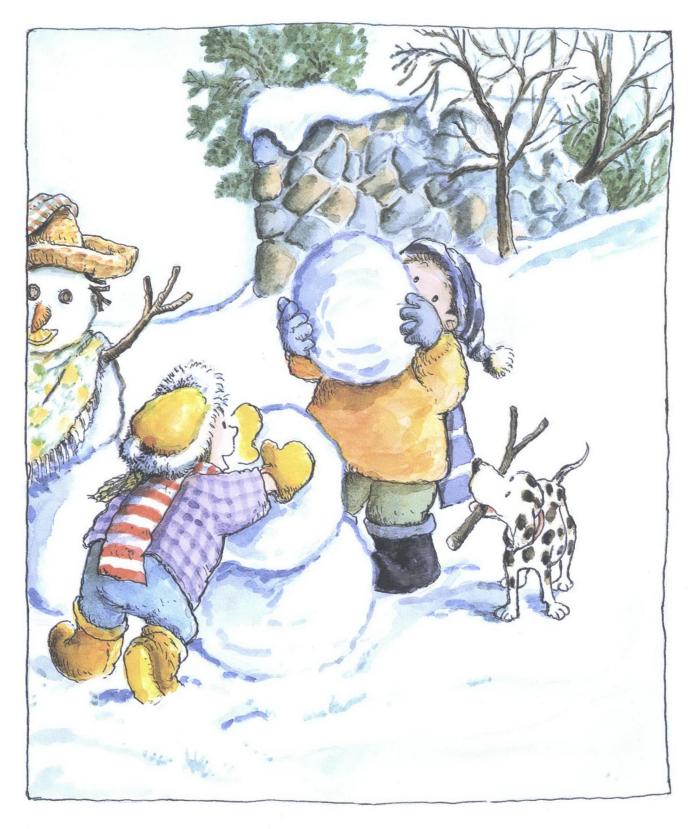

Climb on a sled and go for a ride!

Put on some skis and take a long glide.

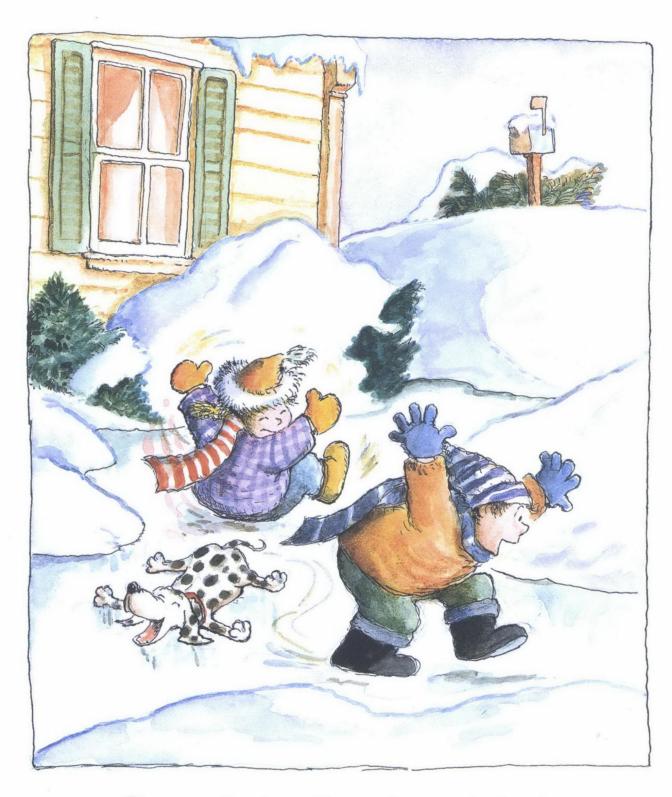

Make a snow couple, who stand side by side.

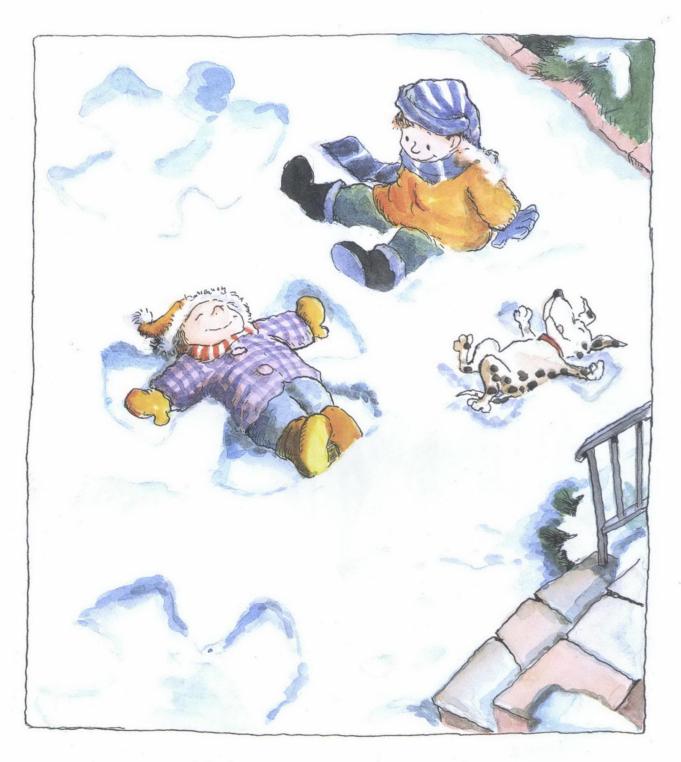

Have a snow wedding for the snow groom and bride.

Play on the ice. Run, slip, and slide!

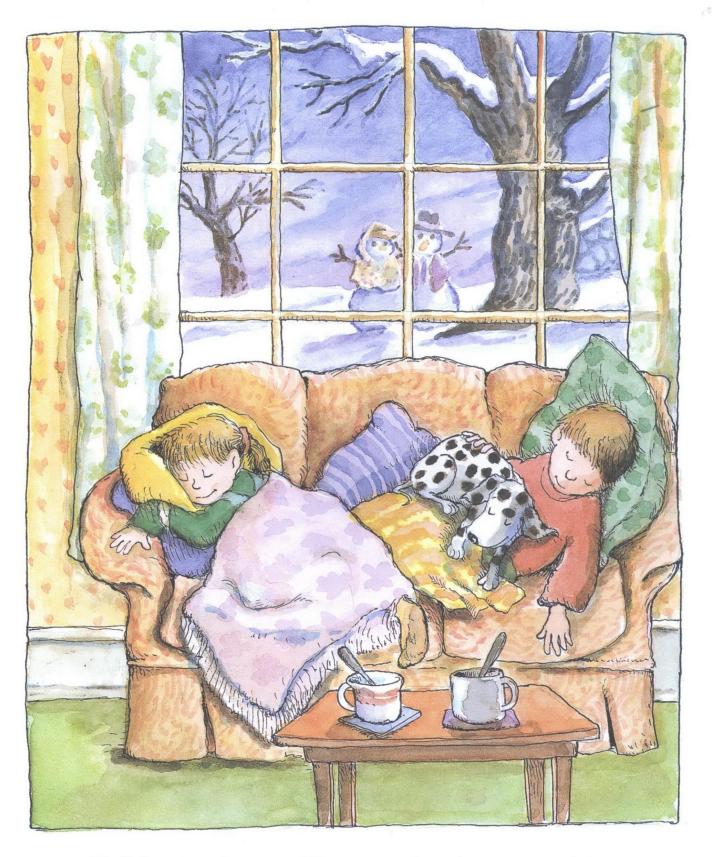

Make some snow angels with wings deep and wide.

Play 'til it's time to go back inside.

Fall fast asleep with your dog by your side.

You'll find it in ride and hide and slide.

Three little letters, that's all that we need

To make a whole family of words to read!

Make a list of other -ide words. Then use them in the cheer!

Reading Tips -ide

Here are some quick and fun ways to use this story to help children learn the word family —ide.

- Explain to children that you are going to read a story that has many words with the -ide sound, made by the letters I, D, and E. All these words belong to a group called a word family.
- Ask children to find the -ide word ending at the top of the front cover. Review aloud with children the sound these three letters make together. Can they find two words in the title with the -ide sound?
- Flip over the book and read the story summary on the back cover. Ask children to point out the words they hear with the -ide sound. Explain that the story you are about to read includes many more words that end in -ide. Can they help you find them?
- Read aloud the story once for pleasure and enjoy the whimsical illustrations. Then reread the book, emphasizing the -ide word ending in the appropriate words. Ask children to listen closely and identify all the words that end in -ide (they might raise their hand or clap when they hear one, or you might choose a volunteer to point to the word on the page). As they do so, make a list on chart paper of all the -ide words.
- Write each of the words from your list on an unlined index card. Use a different color for -ide than the rest of the word. Read each word on the cards with children. On another reading of the story, distribute the cards to children and have them hold up their card as their word is read.
- Pages 14–15 of the book feature 10 riddles with answers that require a word ending in -ide. Read each riddle aloud and have children volunteer answers.
- Read aloud the cheer on page 16 several times, with lots of energy. Invite children to join you in reciting the cheer when they feel ready (you might even choose a "cheerleader").
